

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

5 A photo-functional molecule element having, on a substrate, a porphyrin polymer containing covalently-fixed porphyrin units, and the method of preparing the same. The photo-functional molecule element may be used as a photoelectric conversion element such as an organic solar cell or a three-dimensional, non-linear organic material.